

The company M-KABL LLT Podgorica has provided the tenants of buildings A8, A9 and A10 in Bar with a number of benefits for using cable TV and internet services as well as other services from their official offer.

The main advantage is free of charge connection for all our tenants without access fees and professional installation, with in-built material inside the user's apartment.

Moreover, M-KABL will enable free use of their services for the period three months.

Also, in cooperation with the Trade Union of the Police Directorate, purchasers of apartments of the Police Directorate's residential building in Podgorica will be provided with the same benefits.
